State, of the city of Atlanta and a large number of counties.

4. The Constitution publishes a weekly Cotton Editorial, embracing remarks on the Gold Premium and all matters affecting the cotton trade, withstatistics difficult to be obtained elsewhere. Producers and dealers in cotton, not alone in Georgia, but all over the country, procure The Constitution for these articles.

5. The Constitution furnishes Telegraphic Dispatches and news from all quarters of the globe, including markets, domestic and forcian.—Hence the paper is popular with merchants everywhere.

6. Besless our Daily Associated Press Dispatches, The Constitution has specials from Washington, the National Capital.

8. The Construction publishes a monthly Fashion Letter from New York, whiten by the most celebrated female Eashion writer in the United States. The laddes, therefore, all want The Constructions.

9. A new feature for this year will be Weekly Enropean Correspondence, by which the readers of The Construction will be taken on a tour through Europe.

10. The ablest writers and statesmen of Georgis select The Construction to give their views to public, and so do the Propiz, and hence it is the mitted having Democratic Journal of the State.

11. The two great specialtries, our Suppense Court Decretons for the lawyers, and our Corron articles for the merchants and farmers, make The Construction unrivalled in this part of the South.

12. For the reasons given above, The Construction is the paper fer all classes, lawyers, merchants, farm ers, mechanics and others, circulation and is, therefore, the favorite medium for Adventuses.

Every Georgian should, after taking his own local paper, subscribe for The Construction, published at the Capital of his State; and we would here return thanks to the people for a patronage, that has culminated in the grandest newspaper success known in the Southern States. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calbonn has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 30 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say, during that long period not a colitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

Theatricas Worth

A general impression prevails that there can be little room for genuine female worth among the nude divinities of the stage. The exposure of charm, and the freedom of actng on the stage, is by many believed to be ent with feminine modesty. Yet i should be borne in mindithat stage life is a ocation to which its members are educated, and in which its customs are professional, and therefore practically conventional.

It is difficult and unjust to apply the same tandard to actors and actresses in the ordinary calling of life. The Crescent City of New Orleans mer tions a crowning example of a worthy actress belonging to the burlesque and ballet order. Her history is full of interest, and her caree

BALTIMOHE, October 24.—The trial of W. E. Udderzoot for murder, which is to commence on the 27th instant, at West Chester, Penn., promises to unfold one of the most remarkable criminal cases of the age—a case involving more of mystery, starting incident, greed for gain and heartless butchery than was ever conjured up in the brain of the than was ever conjured up in the brain of the most sensational writer of modern fiction. The plot of this dark tragedy, its scenes and incidents, as disclosed before the Courts, a Coroner's jury, and unearthed by shrewd detectives, may be summed up as follows:

Acr First.

A wooden tenement in the suburbs of Baltimore, occupied by one W. S. Goss, who is ostensibly engaged in experimenting on a substitute for rubber; for which he proposes securing a patent. He has a partner, one W. E. Udderzoot, who has put two hundred dollars, obtained from his mother, into the common purse, the object being not to perfect a patent, but to defraud fire insurance companies out of $25,000. Goss is a married man, and these policies are on his life, one for $10,000 being in the Travelers Accident Company. Udderzoot procures a corpse from some cemetery or dissecting room and places it in the building. Then, all being in readiness for the final coup, Udderzoot and Goss start one morning for this building, purchasing on the way a pint of whisky and a gallon of coal oil. They also borrow one axe of a neighbor, who accompanies them. With the axe a quantity of kindling is cut, and at dark a futile effort is made to light a coal oil lamp. Udderzoot then goes away with the neighbor ostensibly for the purpose of programs. futile effort is made to light a coal oil lamp. Udderzoot then goes away with the neighbor, ostensibly for the purpose of procuring another lamp. They had not been gone long when the building was in flames. Goss had piled the kindling wood on the body, drenched it with coal oil, and set fire to the pile. He then ran down the lane, got into a buggy which his brother, A. C. Goss, had procured and held in waiting, and drove to the Philadelphis depot. He then took a train northward, to become a voluntary wanderer, a homeless outcast.

Udderzoot and his companion hasten back Udderzoot and his companion hasten back to the blazing building. The neighbors gather around, and stand in the glare of the crackling flames. Not until the fire flend had done its worst did Udderzoot mention to those around him that Goss was in the building. This failed to create a sensation, however, as several had seen a man run lown the lane when the fire broke out, and

ACT THIRD.

All this time he is in communication with his fellow conspirators, receives money and letters from them, and on one occasion is visited by his brother and Udderzoot. He has assumed an alias; is A. C. Wilson, a single man, and in this character is attentive to and endeavors to persuade into an clopement a girl in the humble walks of life. Finally the sinews of war became exhausted; it was not foreseen that the insurance companies would hold on to their greenbacks so tenaciously; and to one of the conspirators, at least, a murder seems to af-

THE LAST PERFORMANCE OF THE CHAPMAN SISTERS
These famous Sisters gave their closing performance in Atlanta last night. A fine andience turned out to see them, and we were pleased to note the presence of a number of ladies. Of the acting too much cannot be said. The Sisters, as well as their troupe, acquitted themselves admirably. Miss Bianche sings beauti-fully, and her rendition of "Sweet Spirit Hear my Prayer," could not be surpassed. She was the recipient of frequent applause. The gem of the revaining was little Miss Ella. This tiny beauty, who sparkled with wit and fan fully as brilliant as the diamonds she so profusely wore, was the idel of the sudience. Her acting possesses throughout the charm of originality, which, together with her singing and dancing, make it impossible for one to see too much of either.

Miss Balle is prayity and unaffected. Her alreien Prayer," could not be surpassed. She was the recip WHY WILL YE DIE?—Death, or what is worse, is the inevitable result of continued suspension of the menstrual flow. It is a condition which should not be trified with. Immediate relief is the only safeguard against constitutional ruin. In all cases of suppression, suspension or other irregularity of the 'courses," Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. It acts by giving tone to the nervous centres, improving the blood and determining directly to the organs of menstruation. It is a legitimate prescription, and the most intelligent Doctors use it. Prepared by J. H. Bradfield, drug gist, Atlanta, Ga; $150 per bottle, and sold by respectable druggists everywhere.

MR. L. H. BRADFIELD—Sir: Please forward us, immediately, another supply of BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR. We find it to be all that is claimed for it, and we have witnessed the most decided and happy effects produced by it. Very respectfully, HUNTER & ALEXANDER.

PURCES, PURIFIES AND STATEM.

Dr. THIL'S PIHS are composed of many ingredients. Prominent among them are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united as to act together; the one, through its admixture with other substances, perifying and parging; while the other is strength, perifying and parging; while the other is strength ening the system. Thus these Pills are at the same time a tonic and a catherite, a desideratum long mought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words, they do the work of two medicines and do it much better than any two we know of, for they remove nothing from the system and strengthen and hence they cause no debility and are followed by no reaction.
